FYI....I'd love for you and Sean to get together when possible but know your busy so told him to keep moving along and hook up with you when you got the chance...you obviously know way more than he does about what's going on so figure this will help him play catch-up and hopefully get some good information along the way.

Have you had a chance to spend any time with Mike? I'd love any cabinet feedback that you'd received as well to disseminate to the group.

Hope all is well,

Chad

Sean, here is the schedule that we have been able to develop on short notice. Hopefully, it meets your needs, but let me know if it does not. BTW - John Stevens and I will be in a Procurement Review Panel hearing tomorrow. Please ask for Deb Martin when you get here.

If you have trouble with my directions, call me on my cell at 760-0302.

I'll see you tomorrow.
