Michael Haley is working this and I hope to have final answer this week. Jim Lorraine will likely be approved.

K:

Jim Lorraine from Aiken is up for appointment by Governor Haley to the Veterans Board (not sure of the exact name). My recollection is I was told by your staff that the Governor would review and most likely approve after the India trip. I saw Jim yesterday and he said he had not heard anything yet. I told him that the Governor just returned from India and to give it more time. Jim is the head of the Wounded Warriors Project here. Sen. Ryberg is on his Board and his group is so good at what they are doing that they have been asked to assist with starting similar groups in Greenville, Charleston, and other parts of the Southeast.

Thank you.

Tom
