South Carolina State Parks

#9 on Director Phil's top things to see and do in South Carolina's state parks - Visit the bridge at Jones Gap over the Middle Saluda River. It's one of the most photographed spots in state parks. The whitewater, sounds and timeless features. It's a powerful place and not just because of the water flow. <https://southcarolinaparks.com/jones-gap>

Maggie Cole Stunning photo!

Dan Goodwin I was standing on the bridge in February of 2016. We were hiking the Jones Gap Trail when we got caught in a sudden snow storm. The "greyness" of the photo is snow.
