Could these additional closures be covered with this statement from the executive order: "Whereas, other state government offices may have closed for "the necessary immediate evacuation of a facility by an individual in an appropriate supervisory capacity in the interest of personal safety pursuant to State Human Resources Regulation 19-712.01 (K)"?

Without clarification, how are these closures being handled?

There is no need for additional clarification; however, I want to make you aware of some additional closure information from the recent storm.

Kevin,

The following lists the Clemson Extension County offices that experienced a closure/delay in addition to the areas stated within the executive order:

1. Edgefield County Extension Office – 2hr Delay 10/5/2015; building inaccessible due to road closure (no mention in the executive order)
2. Newberry County Extension Office – Closed All Day 10/5/2015; building inaccessible due to road closure (no mention in the executive order)
3. Clarendon County Extension Office – Closed All Day 10/7/2015; building inaccessible due to road closure (executive order states 2 hr delay)

Do we assume these closures/delays will be included in the forgiven time or do we wait for approval?

Thank you,

Lisa,

It is too late to be included specifically in the executive order but if you would please provide Kevin the office locations, days closed, days delayed and reason, he can forward that to the Governor's Office.

The executive order did recognize that agencies may have closed to personal safety issues. Thanks,

Kim

Kim,

As a way of introduction, my name is Lisa Gagnon, and I am the new Benefits Manager at Clemson University.

I was just informed of 5 Clemson University extension offices that were closed/delayed within the October 2 to October 12th period due to hazardous weather.

I wanted to see if these areas could be included in the forgiven time and if so, what would be needed from me.

I appreciate your time and hope to hear from you soon.

Thank you,

Lisa A. Gagnon | Benefits Manager
