Chaney –

Below are two releases – an advisory and a release to go out after the event. In addition to this email, I'm going to connect you with Rob Smith, who has been my contact for this event, because he still hasn't given final approval.

I've also attached the brief that I've done for tomorrow. I haven't been able to write talking points for them yet, but will do so as soon as I'm feeling up to it today.

Gov. Nikki Haley, Nucor Steel Executives, And The Central Carolina Community Foundation Give Update On One SC Fund

Nucor Steel Announces $100,000 Donation For Hurricane Matthew Recover Efforts

COLUMBIA, S.C. – Governor Nikki Haley was joined today by executives from Nucor Steel and representatives from the Central Carolina Community Foundation (CCCF) to celebrate the work of the One SC Fund in helping South Carolina families recover from the effects of Hurricane Matthew.

As a part of the celebration, Vice President and General Manager of Nucor Steel Berkeley Giff Daughtridge announced the company's donation of $100,000 to the Once SC Fund.

"At Nucor, we take great pride in supporting the communities where we work and live every day. We also take pride in our South Carolina heritage where our steelmaking history was born over 50 years ago. So naturally, the over 2,000 South Carolina Nucor teammates at our 4 divisions want to do their part to help the families and neighborhoods that need support and rebuilding," said Giff Daughtridge, Vice President & General Manager of Nucor Steel Berkeley.

Established to assist South Carolinians recovering from natural disasters, the One SC Fund's first project was providing relief and recovery assistance to South Carolinians in the aftermath of last year's thousand year flood. Thanks to generous donors, One SC has distributed nearly $2,000,000 in grants to nonprofit organizations supporting flood recovery projects across our state. Those grants have resulted in approximately 1,500 families returning home.

In the aftermath of Hurricane Matthew, Governor Haley, in partnership with CCCF, expanded the fundraising efforts of the One SC Fund to help those impacted by the storm. Since that time, the One SC Fund has raised nearly XXXX

Nucor Corporation is the largest steel producer in the United States and has four divisions in South Carolina, employing more than 2,000 people in high-quality manufacturing jobs.
