marvelous Governor of South Carolina.

I'm a Mother of three, grandmother of three, and Great Grandmother of two, all precious to my heart just as your precious two are to yours and your husband's. Such a fine and handsome young man is he too, so proudly decked out in his white uniform.

We love you and yours dearly. We proudly claim you as our beloved Governor of our beloved South Carolina.

P.S. We live in Sun City. Love our life here. My hands + fingers are terribly Arthritic. Thank you for your tolerance in reading this.

Dear Governor Haley,

2-13-'15

My husband, Jim and I had the honor of attending your recent inauguration as Governor of our beloved South Carolina, and also meeting you and your husband in the State House.

I am a native of Ga. and a graduate of U. Ga., though my Mother always prided herself in saying, "I am a South Carolinian". She graduated Magna Cum Laude from Limestone College in Saffney, S.C. I attended S.C. two years.

Nikki, we just want to tell you how beautiful, lovely and wonderful a person we think you are, and proudly claim you as our
