First Ever Joint Developmental Disability Council and State Independent Living Council Members Meeting

On Thursday, July 14 from 10:30 AM – 5:00 PM ET Ohio's Developmental Disabilities Council (DDC) and Statewide Independent Living Council (SILC), as part of their bi-monthly council meetings, will host the first-ever joint business meeting in Newark, Ohio.

The DD and IL networks both work to help people with disabilities live independently, fully participating in their communities. Although the DD community and the IL community frequently work together at a local level, this marks the first time in the history of the programs that the two organizations have combined their state-level business meetings. The combined agenda will enable the two organizations to identify new opportunities to partner, enable each to learn from the other, and create a foundation for ongoing collaboration to better serve people of all ages with all types of disabilities.

OSILC Chair Arthur Schlesinger and ODDC Chair Mark Seifarth will co-host the meeting, which will include remarks by Aaron Bishop, Commissioner of the Administration on Disabilities within the Administration for Community Living; John Martin, Director of the Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities; and Kevin Miller, Executive Director of Opportunities for Ohioans with Disabilities, as well as updates and reports from the OSILC, the Ohio DD Council, and network partners.
