

CHRISTMAS BLESSINGS

Christmas 2014

Dear Family and Friends,

Greetings in the name of the Babe of Bethlehem. We trust you have had a good year and that 2015 will be even better. We have many things for which to be thankful but deeply saddened by the death of our oldest son, dear Dan, by cancer April 11th on my 89th birthday. He was 65. Marie took wonderful care of him but treatment could not get ahead of the disease. Some of us were able to visit him before passing and were later present for his beautiful memorial service.

Rebecca and Larry have returned to Congo to head up the Mennonite Central Committee, a relief agency that supports medical projects, including refugee camps in North-Eastern Congo. They make their home in Kinshasa but their work takes them to projects in different parts of the country. They have been able to return home for the holidays along with Lawrence, Christopher and Richard.

We welcome our newest great-grand into the family, beautiful Abigail Elizabeth, born to Adam, David's oldest son, and his wife Julie. The family has moved to Shelbyville, KY.

David, Joyce and Liam have moved into a new home in the Graniteville area, while continuing to teach in the Aiken County schools. Haley and little Graham have moved into David's former home; she is working for the Aiken-Standard newspaper. Andrew is working for Cracker Barrel. Ashley, Cathy, Anika and Chandler have also moved into a new home in Whitehall, MI.

Sam continues to sell Hondas in Greer. His oldest son, Evan, is assigned by an independent company that supply nurses where needed - his latest assignment was Pheonix. He has now gone to Vancouver, WA. Cameron completes his Masters at Limestone this year.

Sam, Evan, Rebecca, Larry and Christopher and I were able to attend the Sutton reunion this summer in Carrolton, OH. Several of us also attended the Farrow reunion, Arab, AL earlier. Both were very special times.

I miss my sweetheart, Dottie dearest, every day.

Love and Prayers,
