Now that Sanford has said there is a line past which he would pull his "I'll support the GOP nominee" stance (no specifics on what it is, just that situations like this one push him closer to it), I'm being asked to press other electeds with the same statement. I know what the gov has said on her support, but I need to ask again in the context above. Does she have a line, and is it drawing near?

Here you go Meg.

Statement from Governor Nikki Haley: "As a member of a military family, and the governor of a proud military state that has been recognized as the most patriotic, my heart and my unending thanks go out to the Khan family for their enormous sacrifice for our country. As far as I'm concerned, they have the standing to say whatever they want in the political process and should not face criticism for it."

Reaching out today to see if the gov has thoughts on the comments by Khizr Khan and his wife re: their treatment by Donald Trump. Reaching out only to SC's major players. Writing today - this story is a big one for this cycle, and I would love to know her thoughts.
