Is Friday unreasonable? I don't need too much detail. I'll send you what the House has outlined so you can see the level of detail.

I am happy to compile that information as it relates to policy priorities in the budget, but Josh would have to provide you with the meeting information. When would you like this outline?

David, We are considering filing a motion in the Abbeville case, and in that motion we would outline the Governor's recent efforts as they relate to education. i.e. meeting with superintendents, including items in her exec budget, etc. Can you outline for me what she has done in this regard since November 12, 2014?
