Thanks Lexi.

We appreciate y'all.

We'll be in touch about the governor's potential availability. Let Chuck and his entire team know that we appreciate their considering the governor.

Just your friendly reminder letting you know having the Governor on MTP 2/14 is still very much a priority for Chuck. I know still a couple weeks away, but just saw him this morning and figured I'd relay!

Hope it's a great day in South Carolina for y'all!

Hi y'all!

Hope you finally got some much deserved R & R this weekend! I saw Matt this morning and once again he asked about your boss and reiterated how much he appreciated her time last week. I know he already texted you but just wanted to relay....

Likewise, Meet the Press is still very interested in a future opportunity with the Governor . So....wanted to get Sunday 2/14 (obviously right before SC Primary) on your radar. I know how busy you guys are, and I imagine everything with her schedule is fluid, but just thought I would flag Chuck's interest early.

As always, happy to discuss whenever it makes sense....and sure I'll be bugging you before then anyway.

Thanks as always for the consideration!

Lexi
