

State of South Carolina
Proclamation
by Governor Jim Hodges

WHEREAS, science and mathematics are vital components of a well-rounded education, helping our children to succeed in today's technologically advanced society; and

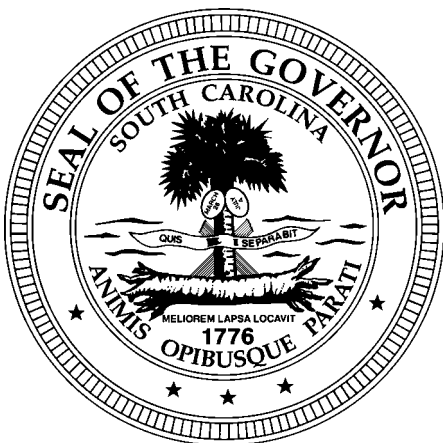

WHEREAS, the South Carolina Academy of Science and the South Carolina Junior Academy of Science are dedicated to encouraging and fostering interest in science and mathematics in all our students through innovative learning opportunities; and

WHEREAS, providing our students with high quality, cutting-edge science and mathematics education is essential to their ability to reach their maximum potential and is crucial to the continued growth and prosperity of our state.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jim Hodges, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim April 12 – April 19, 2002, as

SOUTH CAROLINA
SCIENCE AND MATHEMATICS WEEK

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the importance of science and mathematics education to the future success of the young people of the Palmetto State.
