

From:

To:

Date: 1/15/2016 1:02:22 PM

Subject:

---

In South Carolina we want every student to feel they are getting the best education that suits their needs, that's why we are excited to announce 'South Carolina School Choice Week.' When we give parents diverse options and allow parents to decide what is best for their student

With greater availability of school choice, we've seen increased student performance in our public schools. When families have access to diversity in their educational options, then the economy, the community, and the students all benefit."