Sarah Vaughan Celebration: The Christian McBride Trio, Dianne Reeves, Lisa Fischer, and Sheila Jordan
7:30pm Saturday - November 19 - Victoria Theater

Sponsored by the Institute of Jazz Studies at Rutgers-Newark and National Endowment for the Arts

The Christian McBride Trio and special guests Dianne Reeves, Lisa Fischer and NEA Jazz Master Sheila Jordan celebrate the legacy of Newark's "Divine One" in an all-star jazz concert highlighted by rare film clips.

Nicknamed "Sassy," NEA Jazz Master Sarah Vaughan was one of the top female jazz singers of all time. Her wide, perfectly controlled range ranked her with Ella Fitzgerald and Billie Holiday.

Four-time Grammy winner Dianne Reeves has recorded and performed extensively with the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra and Wynton Marsalis, who said of the singer, "She has one of the most powerful, purposeful and accurate voices of this or any time." She was the first Creative Chair for Jazz for the Los Angeles Philharmonic and the first singer to perform at the famed Walt Disney Concert Hall. Reeves appeared throughout George Clooney's "Good Night and Good Luck" and performed every song on the Grammy-winning soundtrack.

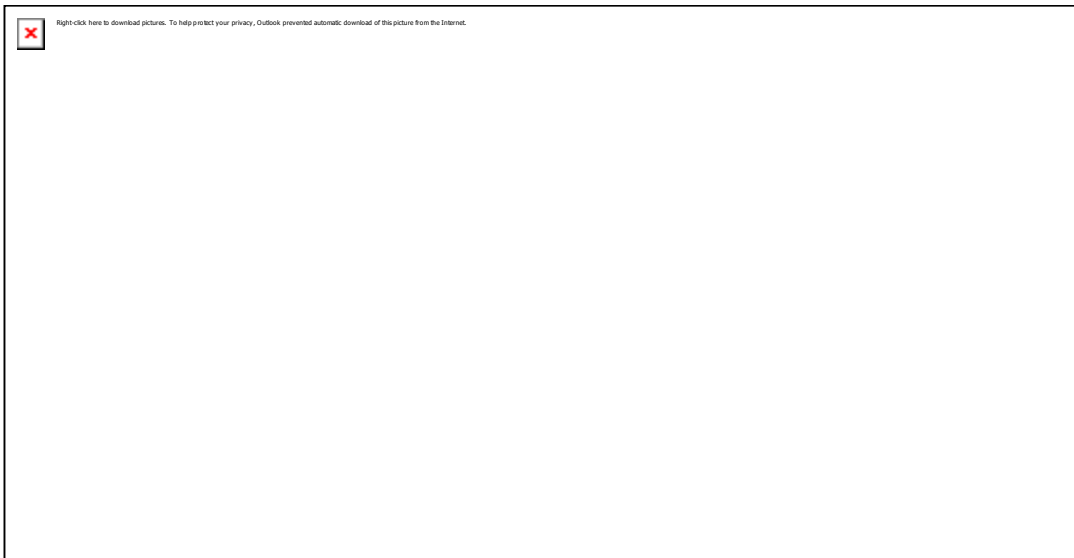

After four decades of singing background for icons like the Rolling Stones and Tina Turner, Grammy winner Lisa Fischer embarked on a new musical journey with the success of the Oscar-winning documentary "Twenty Feet from Stardom." The film told her story, complete with clips of her 1991 R&B hit "How Can I Ease the Pain," live footage of her legendary duets with Mick Jagger on "Gimme Shelter," and glowing testimonials from famous colleagues like Sting, Patti Austin and Chris Botti.

Raised in poverty in Pennsylvania's coal-mining country, NEA Jazz Master Sheila Jordan began singing as a child and was working in Detroit clubs by her early teens. Her uncompromising style and unique musical trademarks include frequent and unexpected sweeping changes of pitch.

NJPAC Jazz Advisor Christian McBride, the recently named Artistic Director of the Newport Jazz Festival, is a five-time Grammy Award-winning bassist-composer who, since the early '90s, has recorded over 300 dates as a sideman and released albums as a leader since '95. Aside from various stints with Sting, Chick Corea, Pat Metheny, Roy Haynes, John McLaughlin and George Duke, among others, McBride tours consistently with his own groups. The Christian McBride Trio will accompany Ms. Reeves, Ms. Fischer and Ms. Jordan.

There is a free Pre-show event at 6pm with film clips and a discussion hosted by Todd Barkan

As a leader, Rosnes has released 15 acclaimed albums and has appeared on other recordings as a consummate sideman. "Rosnes rubs balm in jaded ears," writes DownBeat Magazine.
