Subject: record of your contribution

Dear Friend,

I just got off the phone with my finance director, and he's impressed with the tremendous response we've had from friends and allies like you.

He and I both know it's going to take an "all hands on deck" approach to fending off South Carolina's political establishment in my re-election campaign for State Senate.

So, I'm personally reaching out to you because you're one of my strongest supporters. I hope you'll make your most generous contribution of $25, $50, $100, $250 or more before tomorrow night's important fundraising deadline.

I'm not a "go along to get along" politician.

I don't kowtow to the political establishment.

And I won't back down when our commonsense conservative values are on the line.

That means the back room wheelers and dealers in Columbia have put a pretty big target on my back.

When they come looking for favors, I tell them my only special interest are the people of my district and my state. Plain and simple.

And now as I prepare to run for re-election, I'm fending off a primary challenger who promises to "cooperate" and "compromise" with those who want to grow government and take away our rights.

You and I must stand firm on our convictions and not waver in the face of opposition from the political establishment.

That's why I hope you'll make your most generous contribution before midnight tomorrow:

Your support will allow me to build a strong foundation ahead of what will be one of the most hotly contested races in South Carolina in 2016.

Please let me hear from you before tomorrow night's critical fundraising deadline. Thank you.

For Liberty,

Senator Lee Bright

P.S. After talking with my finance director, I'm encouraged by the outpouring of support from friends and allies just like you. But as we prepare to close out the books on 2015 and file a critical fundraising report, I'm asking for you to step up and make your most generous contribution of $25, $50, $100, or more right away. Thank you so much, and God Bless.
