Dear Coach Harding,

I am pleased to have the opportunity to recognize your contributions to the William Carter, Jr. Basketball Camp. While you have distinguished yourself as an athlete and coach on the basketball court, it is your work with young people in Charleston that I would like to thank you for today. By getting involved and sharing your time and talents with children, you are helping equip the next generation of South Carolina's leaders with the tools they will need to achieve their future goals. Your commitment to giving back to your hometown sets an example for others on the importance of service, and the positive impact you have made is greatly appreciated.

Michael and I wish you the best for continued success. God bless.

My very best,
