

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, across the Palmetto State, local festivals and celebrations help preserve the unique traditions and heritage that are part of our cultural history while bringing members of a community together in a festive atmosphere; and

WHEREAS, cornbread, one of our most cherished quick breads, has long been a staple of South Carolina's cuisine; and

WHEREAS, with attractions ranging from live music, a children's area, a classic car show, and pageants to the Cornhole Classic and contests featuring cornbread and cows, the South Carolina Cornbread Festival promises fun and excitement for all ages and interests; and

WHEREAS, the 2015 Cornbread Classic will help raise awareness of and knowledge about domestic violence and other important health issues in an effort to make a positive impact on the community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim March 28, 2015, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to take advantage of the exciting attractions and learning opportunities incorporated into this festive event.
