Mr. McElveen is retired, he lives off of his Social Security, on a fixed income. His roof has been completely destroyed and he is afraid if it rains again his home will become an unsafe place for him to stay. His gutter system was also destroyed in the storm so his roof can't drain water.

He is wondering if there is any special assistance for seniors or those living on a fixed income because he will not be able to fix his house with his Social Security income alone.
