Subject: RE: Child Support checks being held with DSS for 21 when received from the IRS and SC state

This is ridiculous to have set here and have to wait another 21 days once the IRS sends a child support offset to DSS. I was told by Sheree @ 1800-768-6779 that even when they receive the funds from the IRS in reference to payer (absent father) so if they receive it this week or next week that they hold it for 21 days more days. This is crap since I have been waiting years for the Spartanburg clerk of court to take David L Lawson's taxes. DSS case number 0927990. Even when they take his taxes they are allowing him to a request to reduce his child support even though he will still be behind because he currently owe $8500.00. DSS should not be holding any tax checks taken they should be sending them to who they should be going to immediately, unless they are embezzling money again like they did a few years ago. They are going to hold the money 21 after they get but have scheduled a court date already for May 2, 2016.

I appreciate your help.

Thank You,
