What your "family" is doing is disgusting. There is nothing wrong with you or your partner. Good luck!

You and your partner deserve to have your family bacm together. You clearly love each other and that's all that matters.

This is ridiculous and the child would be better off with two people who love each other than people who will tell lies to a child because they are forcing their views on the child. The child was not in danger and should never have been taken away! Hoping for the best for this child and the wrong that has been done to him can be changed!
