Brett Kavanaugh JESUIT Connections:

Documented in Kavanaugh's 110 - page questionnaire to US Senate Judiciary Committee

CCL Comment : Documentation has not been obtained to state Brett Kavanaugh is himself a member of the Jesuit Order. However, his Jesuit education and ongoing Jesuit connections are significant. He is a "Jesuit" in the sense of his Jesuit mindset and worldview, the formation of which began in his youth.

How Brett Kavanaugh's religious upbringing shaped his thinking

[ Excerpts, emphasis comment added ]

"When President Trump nominated Brett Kavanaugh to the Supreme Court on Monday night, journalists logically began scouring his judicial decisions and education at Yale Law School to glean insights into how he might rule if confirmed. But for an understanding of his overall worldview , beyond jurisprudence, one has to go back much further - to his religious upbringing in the suburbs of Washington, D.C."

"He attended Mater Dei school for boys, which provides "an accelerated yet basic [ CCL: Roman ] Catholic education in which character development is emphasized and appreciated as much as academic accomplishments" for grades one through eight. He then moved on to high school at Georgetown Preparatory, the only Jesuit boarding school in the U.S. Both schools had a profound effect on the man Kavanaugh became ."

" "The motto of my Jesuit high school was 'men for others.' I've tried to live that creed," Kavanaugh said at Monday's ceremony unveiling his nomination to the high court."

"Monsignor John Enzler, president and CEO of Catholic Charities of the [ CCL: Roman Catholic ] Archdiocese of Washington, has known Kavanaugh for 40 years."

" "At Georgetown Prep, you saw him catch the spirit of their theme, which is 'be a man for others,'" Enzler told Yahoo News."

Applying his Jesuit training

"Kavanaugh's judicial philosophy is also clearly informed by his faith. Jesuits are members of the Society of Jesus , a scholarly order of more than 16,000 [ CCL: Roman ] Catholic priests and brothers dedicated to the "greater glory of God" [ CCL: sic ] and the good of all humanity [ CCL: sic ]. They're renowned for the intellectual rigor of their scholarship and well-known for their social justice outreach. Pope Francis is the first Jesuit pope."

"Enzler said Kavanaugh caught "a little bit more of the Jesuit spirit" and its accompanying intellectual gifts."

Office of Independent Counsel:

In the summer of 1994 I joined the Office of Independent Counsel. In that Office, I performed six main functions during the course of my service.

First, I was a line attorney responsible for the Office's investigation into the death of former Deputy White House Counsel Vincent W. Foster, Jr. This assignment required management and coordination with a number of FBI agents and investigators, FBI laboratory officials, and outside experts on forensic and psychological issues. I was responsible for conducting and assisting with interviews of a wide variety of witnesses with respect to both the cause of death and Mr. Foster's state of mind. I was responsible for preparing a draft of the report on his death. The investigation and report resolved questions about the cause and manner of Mr. Foster's death, concluding that he committed suicide in Fort Marcy Park, Virginia.

Second, I was one of two line attorneys responsible for conducting the investigation into possible obstruction of justice in the wake of Mr. Foster's death, including whether documents had been unlawfully removed from his office or otherwise concealed from investigators. This was an extensive grand jury investigation. I conducted numerous interviews and grand jury sessions and, with another attorney, prepared a memorandum of more than 300 pages summarizing the matter. At the time, this matter also was being investigated by the Senate. The Office conducted a thorough investigation of the facts and did not seek criminal charges against any individuals.
