Jessica, You have to participate in events listed on the schedule for each of the parks you visit. That can be anything from camping to getting a free ice cream! Let us know if we can be of any more help and thank you for your interest in Ultimate Outsiderfest!

Hello! My name is Jessica Bauer, and myself, my husband Beau, and our 2 year old daughter recently finished the Ultimate Outsider challenge (and 8 national parks). We turned in our books at Hunting Island on January 8, and have already received our tshirts and park pass (awesome-thanks!)...but I wanted to make sure we didn't miss our picture being posted on your Facebook page. I'm excited to share the post with our family and friends! Also, not sure if it's been done by anyone else yet, but I was 28 weeks pregnant when we turned in our books! So really 3.5 Bauers completed the challenge. :)

Let me know if I missed the post! Looks like there have been lots of folks finishing up recently!! I have a copy of our picture with the ranger if I need to send it as well.

Thanks so much!

Hi, Jessica! I do have your pic! Great looking family.....and love the Clemson gear! We have not posted your pic, but will get it done this week. We're a little behind due to the overwhelming amount of people who have completed the program lately. Keep your eyes open this week!

Thank you so much!! I figured y'all were pretty busy, but just wanted to make sure I didn't miss it. (Pregnant and having a toddler makes it easy to miss most things) I'll keep an eye out.

Go Tigers!!

Regarding the Ultimate Outsiderfest Stamp Challenge...do you have to participate in 10 events, or just visit 10 parks during the 5 days? I have a 3 month old and a 2 year old--we can definitely visit a few parks, but most of the events don't suit our activity level.
