Hi Bunty!

It was very nice to meet you last week. The trip was a great success.

I passed this along to the Governor's office (Katherine Veldran, copied) so that the letter gets special attention and Governor Haley gets notice of the request, even though the trip is over. I'm glad that we were able to do an event with the Asia Society - thank you for your assistance with the Women's CEO Roundtable. I think it was a special event with a great group of very impressive women. A very cool experience!

I look forward to hopefully working with you sometime in the future!

I had met Shekhar Tiwari in Washington DC, a couple of years ago and he had offered to introduce me to Governor Haley's office but I never followed up with him. So unfortunately this letter of invitation, from our office in NY, just went straight into the other thousands of emails she must receive.
