

Gonzales Gardens To Hold Bond Rally

The Record

1/19/44

A bond rally will soon be held at Gonzales Garden, sponsored by the Gonzales Gardens Association, with the place and date to be announced soon.

Mrs. J. C. Mello, president of the association announced at a recent business session that plans are being outlined to make Gonzales Gardens a civic center as well as a recreational center.

Mrs. E. J. Hicks will be chairman for the Civilian Defense to arrange for the collection of papers for the gardens, and residents are requested to hold all old papers until a notice can be sent them.

A square dance, with a good orchestra, and a real "old fashioned caller," will be held Thursday evening. There will be entertainment and open house from 9 to 12 o'clock of the social hall. All soldiers are welcome.

The President's Ball which will be held Monday evening, Jan. 31 from nine until 12 of the hall.

All service men of Fort Jackson and the army air base will be welcomed, and the hall will be open to the public proceeds will go for the infantile Paralysis fund.

Mr. Motley, who has been in a serious condition at the Baptist Hospital for several weeks, is slowly improving, and can now have company. The prayer band of the gardens remembered him with a large basket of fruit recently.
