I mentioned the upcoming testimony in the last Board/CEO Exchange. Attached is the formal letter of invitation. Staff is currently working on the testimony. I will include the testimony in the next communication. Also, we are preparing the Executive Committee meeting minutes. Our discussions included an expanded distribution of the Board/CEO Exchange communication to all administrators.

So, tomorrow's communication will include a new title, "Administrators/CEO Exchange." Any confidential information I need to share with the board will be sent as a targeted email communication to the board.
