Team,

I spoke with David this morning about making sure we are ready to go on the storm recovery presser next week and avoid working over the holidays as much as possible. Toward that end, let's get as much of this organized today and tomorrow as possible.

Nicole – the best day for the presser is Tuesday, November 29. Please confirm for us the time and day. Location will be the Statehouse.

Austin – please invite the appropriate cabinet directors to the presser.

David – please prepare the briefing and whatever else the press shop will need.

Press office – let us know what y'all need.

Also, regarding Ban the Box EO – we will not be able to do a the cabinet breakfast next week due to holiday activities at the mansion.

Nicole and Austin – let us know of another good time for the cabinet breakfast which will determine when we release the EO.

Thanks everyone!
