Good morning Susan.

Attached are the results of Grace's online research. She has found information from seven states about payments for guardians and conservators and from five states about guardian ad litem laws and policies. Grace thought you also might be interested in the following information, which describes national trends and issues.

1. State Adult Guardianship Legislation: Directions of Reform -2011. Commission on Law and Aging, American Bar Association. Available at http://www.americanbar.org/content/dam/aba/uncategorized/2011/2011\_aging\_gship\_reform\_12.authcheckdam.pdf
2. Why Every Court Needs Guardian/Conservator Fee Guidelines. Center for Elders and the Courts. Posted on July 6, 2012. Available at: <http://blog.eldersandcourts.org/why-every-court-needs-guardianconservator-fee-guidelines/>

We hope this is helpful. Please let us know if you have further questions and/or would like Grace to do a little more searching online.

Hi Susan.

I need to check in with my colleagues to see if they know the answers to these questions, because I don't. I'll keep you posted.

Hi Diana.
I hope you are having a super day.
I am forwarding an e-mail from my colleague, Julia Foster.
Julia is our Legal Counsel for the Lt. Governor.
She is working on our guardians and conservators project for our agency.
We found the information that you shared with us before to be so helpful.
Julia inquired to see if NAUSAD may have any additional information (please see the e-mail below.)
Any information or direction that you could share with us would so helpful.
As always, I appreciate your time and support.

Have a great day!
Sue

Would you please see if NASUAD has information on
-how much other states pay guardians and conservators
-what other states have volunteer guardian ad litem programs and any stats on those

Thanks!!
