Dear Jennings,

I am pleased to congratulate you on your selection to attend the 2016 Research Science Institute! It's awesome to see South Carolina students with your level of commitment to academic excellence and interest in STEM. You have certainly worked hard to earn the opportunity to participate in this competitive program, and I encourage you to continue seeking ways to challenge yourself and make a positive difference. Michael and I are so proud of you. jWe look forward to hearing more about you in the future! God bless.

My very best,
