Update: Press Conference Change

COLUMBIA, S.C. – Tomorrow marks our Business Speaks event. This annual event brings business leaders from all over South Carolina to the capital to discuss our 2017 Competitiveness Agenda, an outline of the issues the business community wants lawmakers to address in the 2017 session. It includes recurring funding for our roads, cutting the red tape on business licensing, and filling the workforce pipeline. However, our previously scheduled 2 p.m. press conference at the Statehouse is being changed because of a conflict with the recently announced S.C. Supreme Court hearing. Chamber CEO Ted Pitts, along with business leaders from the South Carolina Ports Authority, Sonoco, Spirit Communications, Volvo, and SCE&G just to name a few will still be available throughout the event for media interviews upon request. Please contact Andrea Mock if you wish to set up an interview. To view the Business Speaks Agenda click here.
