The Council on State Taxation (COST) issues several scorecards a year. (I recently sent the COST Unclaimed Property scorecard.)

COST just issued its annual COST Scorecard on Tax Appeals & Procedural Requirements. SC received a B. We received an A- for several years but fell to a B several years ago primarily because of our lack of equalized interest rates on refunds versus assessments.

Ga received a B and NC a B+. Louisiana (D-) and Alabama (D) were among the bottom ranked states,

COST Issues 5th Scorecard on Tax Appeals & Procedural Requirements, “The Best and Worst of State Tax Administration”

The Council On State Taxation (COST) is pleased to release its updated Scorecard on state tax appeals processes and administrative practices. This fifth Administrative Scorecard continues to apply objective criteria to evaluate independence in tax appeals systems and key procedural elements that impact taxpayers’ perceptions of fairness and efficiency.

This issue of the Scorecard features an “Awards & Demerits” section highlighting key improvements, continuing deficiencies, and new issues since the last edition of the Scorecard in 2010. The intent of the Scorecard is to provide a roadmap to states in establishing a legal structure that promotes fair and efficient tax administration, a benefit to both the state and the taxpayer.
