KOMU News Today (News)

... the house has one more procedural vote... which is expected to pass. the bill now goes to republican governor nikki haley, who supports taking the flag down. the flag could come down in days... and part of the reason for that --- strong support from south carolina statehouse republicans. republican representative, jenny horne --- a descendent of confederate president jefferson davis --- scolded some members of her own party for trying to delay the vote. ...
