Honorable Nikki Haley
Governor of South Carolina
1205 Pendleton Street
Columbia, SC 29201

Dear Governor Haley:

On October 18, 2016, a Presidential Disaster Declaration for South Carolina was amended to include two additional primary counties due to losses caused by Hurricane Matthew, which occurred from October 4, 2016, and continuing. As a result of this declaration, eligible family farmers may qualify for Farm Service Agency (FSA) emergency (EM) loan assistance. The counties affected are:

Berkeley

Horry

In accordance with Section 321(a) of the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act, eight (8) other South Carolina counties were named as contiguous counties where eligible family farmers may qualify for FSA EM loan assistance. Those counties are:

Charleston
Clarendon
Dillon

Dorchester
Georgetown
Marion

Orangeburg
Williamsburg

EM loan assistance is available to any applicant with a qualifying loss in the above counties through June 19, 2017.

If I can provide further information or be of assistance to you in any way, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor Haley:

On October 17, 2016, a Presidential Major Disaster Declaration for the State of Georgia was amended to include additional primary counties. This disaster declaration was due to losses caused by Hurricane Matthew, which occurred from October 4-15, 2016. As a result of this declaration, eligible family farmers may qualify for Farm Service Agency (FSA) emergency (EM) loan assistance.

In accordance with Section 321(a) of the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act, counties in adjacent states that are contiguous to one or more of the designated Georgia counties are named as contiguous counties where eligible family farmers may qualify for FSA EM loan assistance. As a result of this amendment, the following two South Carolina counties are affected:

Hampton

Jasper

EM loan assistance is available to any applicant with a qualifying loss in the above counties through June 19, 2017.

If I can provide further information or be of assistance to you in any way, please do not hesitate to contact me.
