Sure, no problem. I was talking to Marcia yesterday and she mentioned that you'd been cooped up all week. Next week's fine - have a good time tomorrow.

I apologize for not responding to you earlier this week. I'm sitting in the evaluation panel on the grade 3-8 and 11 assessment. I've spent much of the week doing the readiness assessment. Tomorrow I take my daughter to college. Could we meet next week?

Thanks!
Melanie
