IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Governor Nikki Haley yesterday delivered remarks to the Aiken Republican Club's luncheon. I wanted to pass along video of the event as well as highlights from news coverage: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JYLbVrBcnd8>

"The goal is that we're going to live by spending caps, or we'll turn into Washington, D.C.," she said. "When you see something wrong, you veto it out. When additional money falls into your lap, you don't spend it. You use it to pare down debt, or you give it back to taxpayers." (Aiken Standard, "Haley defends choices on spending cuts," 8/17/2011)

"Zee Homoki voted for South Carolina Gov. Nikki Haley because of what she promised during her campaign. Now in the first year of her term, Homoki says Haley has kept each of those promises and then some. 'I really think she's awesome,' Homoki said at the Aiken Republican Club meeting on Tuesday. Haley was the keynote speaker." (Augusta Chronicle, "Haley touts accomplishments at Aiken luncheon, 8/17/2011")
