South Carolina State Parks > Duke Energy, Outdoor Afro

at 20:00:44 on 11/08/2021 UTC · 🌐

South Carolina State Parks with support from Duke Energy are hosting events across the state to increase diversity in our parks. This weekend, park staff hosted an overnight for first time campers at Chester State Park with participants from North Carolina and South Carolina Chapters of Outdoor Afro. Over 30 participants learned how to setup tents, make campfires, campfire cooking and more. A great time was had by all!

Evan Stiner Love the abundance of hammocks. Palmetto State Hangers , I'm sure, would love to aid in this endeavor in the future.

Danny Walker Please have the road paved at Cheraw State Park from Club house to Hiking Trail. It's in bad shape and a motorcycle rider will get hurt....
