I submitted a photo a couple of days ago and it is still not showing up in the Gallery - I'm afraid it did not "take" and I'd like to re-submit but I see the rules say that a picture can be disqualified if submitted more than once. Is there any way I can tell if my picture made it into the running if it is not showing in the gallery?

Please check the gallery again. We have just approved more photos. Please let me know if yours are showing up now or not. Thanks!

Yes, I named it Perfect Day at the Beach and I am attaching a copy so you can see it. I think I also dated it 08-17-14

Kathi, I did find your photo in the submitted entries. It has been approved and is in the "stack" of over 1500 photos for judging for summer. I'm not sure why you couldn't find it in the gallery, but it has been approved and should be in there somewhere. It will be judged in the contest. Thanks!

Thank you so much - not that I have much of a chance with all the wonderful photos that are there but I do appreciate all of your assistance!
