Hi Tony,

Join Healthcare Education Associates for our upcoming Integrating Behavioral Health, taking place April 26-27 at Hyatt Regency Pier Sixty-Six. Hear how Commonwealth Care Alliance has transitioned into a new model of whole-person care focused on shared responsibilities. Get provider insights from Carolinas HealthCare System, who has extended behavioral health services to all of its hospital and physician practices. Find out what L.A. Health Plan has discovered when they started including behavioral health in their treatment of members with co-morbidities.

Top Reasons to Attend:

- Real examples of sustainable and integrated care models from health plans and provider groups
- Examine risk adjustment pitfalls and payment reform requirements for whole-person care
- Understand data reporting requirements for members with complex behavioral health needs
- Improve your care management models by including behavioral health professionals in the conversation
- Discover new opportunities for engagement and therapy adherence

This conference is designed for healthcare professionals looking to develop whole-person models of integrated care including, but not limited to: Behavioral Health, Behavioral Health and Health Care Delivery, Primary Care Behavioral Health, Care Management, Integrated Care, Medical Management, Medical Affairs, Wellness, Medical Directors, Clinical Officers, Behavioral Network Services, Medicaid, Medicare, and Dual Eligibles, Special Programs, Operations, Reimbursement and Risk Adjustment.
