

From:

To:

Date: 4/12/2016 2:21:53 PM

Subject:

---

GOOD GOVERNMENT: GOVERNMENT TRANSPARENCY & ETHICS REFORM

GOV. HALEY BELIEVES GOVERNMENT SHOULD WORK FOR THE PEOPLE NOT THE OTHER WAY AROUND

Gov. Haley Delivered South Carolina Roll Call Voting. (Robert Kittle, "Has Gov. Nikki Haley Kept Her Campaign Promises?," WSPA, 11/7/11)

Gov. Haley's Administration Has Been The Most Transparent In State History: Releases Her Schedule To The Media Weekly; Her Press Conferences And Public Appearances Are Videotaped And Posted Online; She Holds "Open Door After 4" Allowing Constituents To Meet With Her in Columbia And At Various Locations Across The State; She Releases Her Flight Logs.

Gov. Haley Developed A Bipartisan Ethics Commission, Chaired By Two Former Attorneys General, That Developed a Blueprint For Ethics Reform. (Andrew Shain, SC Governor Creates Ethics Panel, The State, 10/19/12)

ATTACK: GOV. HALEY HAS HAD ETHICS COMPLAINTS LEVELED AGAINST HER

The House Ethics Committee Cleared Gov. Haley Twice On Charges She Illegally Lobbied As A Member Of The House. (Seanna Adcox, "House Ethics panel clears SC Gov Haley again," The Associated Press, 6/29/12)

The South Carolina Supreme Court Dismissed A Request To Rehear Arguments Regarding The Governor Illegally Lobbying For Lexington Medical Center Foundation While A House Member. (Seanna Adcox, "Court Says No to Man's Complaint Against Gov. Nikki Haley," The Associated Press, 7/26/13)