

From: Hayden Grooms
To: Danny VaratDannyVarat@scstatehouse.gov
Date: 3/20/2017 12:01:45 PM
Subject: Clips 3-20

Freedom Action Network of South Carolina paid the gas tax at an upstate gas station for the first 1,000 gallons of gas sold, reducing the cost per gallon to $1.58.

<http://www.greenvilleonline.com/story/news/2017/03/20/drivers-pay-158-gas-group-talks-tax-hike/99402342/>

Democratic leadership trying to use latest GOP corruption scandal to win back the state

<http://www.thestate.com/news/politics-government/article139358058.html>

Director Comey confirms that the FBI is investigating links between Trump's associates and Russia

http://www.postandcourier.com/ap/fbi-director-james-comey-confirms-fbi-is-investigating-possible-links/article_54cfd9ca-0d7d-11e7-aa8f-ebe25c385bf1.html

Article trying to pain a gas-tax hike in a positive light, stating that SC is one of the lowest taxed states in the country

http://www.postandcourier.com/columnists/hicks-column-henry-mcmaster-lawmakers-taking-different-roads-to/article_9849b1ea-0b3d-11e7-b7ed-2369493b55e1.html

Google event article

http://hosted2.ap.org/SCSUM/ddb232726ae4442e9cb0e88b3ccf7068/Article_2017-03-20-SC--Google-Rural%20School%20Bus%20WiFi/id-69a11c4545eb48d08df713af97e934f3

There was not much today.

I have sent a copy of the op-ed and that headshot to the rest of the news outlets.

Hayden Grooms
Manager of External Affairs
Office of the Lieutenant Governor
(803) 734-0107