Subject: 2016 AHIMTA Training and Education Symposium --- More Symposium Highlights

Dear Stan,

Please join us for the All-Hazards Incident Management Teams Association (AHIMTA) 6th Annual Training and Education Symposium – *The Power of Partnerships.

The symposium agenda will focus on providing attendees critical information on lessons learned and best practices developed by existing All-Hazards Incident Management Teams that could be beneficial to other teams.

Highlights from a Session Presentation!

A Whole Community Approach to the Hesston Active Shooter Incident

Active shooter.....if it could happen in Hesston, Kansas, it can happen anywhere! What would you do if you were called to respond?? Could your team manage the chaos and emotion? How would you assist the local jurisdiction while promoting collaboration and healing? Dan Bronson, Jeff Deal, and Rodney Redinger of the Kansas IMT will share their experiences during the Hesston, Kansas Active Shooter response. Come hear their lessons learned in this important and timely discussion. This is definitely one you don't want to miss!

Don't Delay --- Register Now to Reserve Your Spot!
