Subj: Syrian Refugees

Governor Staley,

Reports are that you favor taking in the Syrian refugees. Why do you want to put the lives of South Carolinians in jeopardy? The majority of people in SC do not want to live in fear? I ask you to reverse your stance on this. We are at war with Islam!

Are you familiar with the Muslim Commune in York County? Please note below on this group. I would like to know if this group is being monitored. You can find this article by searching for "Muslim of America". This commune is knopwn as Islamville located on a street named Islamville Way.

South Carolina's "Holy Islamville"

by RYAN MAURO April 24, 2012

A radical Pakistani cleric named Sheikh Mubarak Ali Gilani and his followers testify to the holiness of a shrine where miracles allegedly prove his supernatural powers. The shrine isn't in Pakistan, Saudi Arabia or anywhere in the Islamic world. It's in York County, South Carolina, inside a commune about 36 acres large called "Holy Islamville," located on a street named Islamville Way.

It was founded in 1982 by a group called Muslims of the Americas (MOA), led by the aforementioned Gilani. The Department of Homeland Security says it is linked to Jamaat ul-Fuqra, a Pakistani militant group also led by Glani. The State Department describes ul-Fuqra as "an Islamic sect that seeks to purify Islam through violence."

Fuqra was behind many assassinations and bombings between 1979 and the early 1990s. Its biggest plot aimed to kill 4,500 Indians in Toronto during the Festival of Lights in 1991. Its destructive capacity first caught the FBI's attention in 1989 because of a raid on a storage locker in Colorado Springs. They discovered weapons and plans for various attacks, including a scheme to murder Imam Rashad Khalifa in Arizona in 1990. They succeeded, killing him exactly as the seized papers said they would. Two Fuqra members were allegedly involved in the 1993 World Trade Center bombing and dramatic plots against New York City
