

November 8, 1944.

The Budget Commission met in the Governor's Office at 10:00 o'clock on November 8, 1944, to begin hearings on 1945-46 appropriations of the departments and institutions of the State. Lieutenant-Governor Williams was present and Mr. Blatt came in for a short time during these hearings, but was forced to leave on account of other engagements.

The following departments and institutions were heard during the day:

- The Adjutant General
- The State Medical College
- The State Colored College
- John de la Howe School
- The School for the Deaf and the Blind
- The State Hospital
- The South Carolina Sanatorium
- The Confederate Infirmary
- The Probation and Parole Board
- The State Board of Fisheries.

The Commission then recessed until tomorrow.

E N D