Subject: DOR inquiry for constituent of Sen. Courson

Katherine,

Our office received a call from a constituent of Senator John Courson on behalf of her sister, a former SC resident, who is now residing in Scotland. The sister tried to contact Experian but they are requiring a SC address, thus preventing her from registering. How will she be officially notified? Is there another resource for her to use? Your information sheet said that non-residents would be notified by U.S. mail, but how do they obtain the up to date contact information – especially on those residing outside of the United States? Also – if we get other inquiries that we are not able to reference by the information sheet that you sent out today, is there another resource for inquiries?

Thank you for your assistance. I look forward to hearing from you.
