Subject: story for TIME--phoner with Gov. Haley?

Hi Chaney--I'm working on a story for TIME's new women-focused vertical, Motto, about the women trying to make it cool for young women to be conservative this election season. Is Gov. Haley available to chat about why conservatism should appeal to young women, and her efforts in this arena? My deadline is next Friday, the 24th. It would only be ten minutes or so over the phone.

Feel free to give me a call to discuss: 206.830.0237.

Talk soon,
Rebecca Nelson
