Subject: 1 Simple Question: Is there even one state governor in this country who will...
From: Gregg Jackson <gregg.jackson@gmail.com>

...abide by his/her sworn Constitutional oath to:

1. Stop the issuance of marriage licences to same sex couples since every marriage statute in every state defines marriage as the exclusive union of one man and one woman which have never been altered or amended in any way to accommodate/permit so called same-sex marriage AND since Obergefell is a toothless, immoral and unconstitutional opinion which is not the "law of the land."????

AND

2. Enforce the God given right to life for ALL innocent human persons from conception to natural death by enforcing the 5th and 14th Amendment "equal protection" and "due process" guarantees by re-criminalizing child murder and closing down every abortuary in operation in the state in which they preside as Chief Law Enforcement Officer since Roe is a toothless, immoral and unconstitutional opinion which is not the "law of the land."????

Governor Jindal?

Governor Walker?

Governor Haley?

Governor Christee?

Governor Kasich?

Anybody have the courage to actually abide by your sworn oath?
