Subject: UPDATE: Michelle Singletary of the Washington Post added to the speaker lineup for tomorrow's call!

Dear Colleague:

Please join us on Tuesday, April 26, 2016 from 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. (EDT) for a conference call on the importance of financial planning for the faith community.

On the conference call, we will share information on topics such as: retirement security for faith leaders; employer resources for faith leaders; and Social Security's partnership with faith leaders during Faith Week to help spread the word about the lifetime protections Social Security provides.

Our featured guest speakers will include:

- Jim Winkler – President and General Secretary, National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A.
- Ted Daniels – Founder & President, Society for Financial Education and Professional Development, University Divinity School;
- Michelle Singletary – Syndicated Personal Finance Columnist, Washington Post;
- Christopher R. Upperman – Senior Advisor, Office of Entrepreneurial Development, U.S. Small Business Administration
- Doug Nguyen – Chicago Regional Communications Director, Social Security Administration
- Donald R. "Don" Cravins, Jr. – National Urban League, Inc. Washington Bureau Senior Vice President and Executive Director.

Due to the limited number of lines, we ask that you register to participate as soon as possible here. You will receive an email reminder with the call-in information. The call-in information is also available on the registration page.

During the call, we invite you to follow us on Twitter at @SSAOutreach and engage with us using the hashtag #SSAOutreach.

Thank you for your continued support of Social Security and we look forward to your participation!

Sincerely,

J. Jioni Palmer
Associate Commissioner for External Affairs
