Description/Significant Features:

The single-story frame Traditional residence is three bays wide, three piles deep, and rests on a replacement concrete pier foundation. A hipped roof tops the building, with a pedimented gabled centrally placed on the facade. Three replacement doors are equally placed on on the facade and topped by arched transoms, two of which are additions to the building. In addition to the windows and doors all of the building's original weatherboards have been removed. Two original brick chimneys rise from the building's roof and an attached ell extends to the building's eastern elevation.

Alterations (include date(s), if known):

replacement siding and cornerboards

replacement windows and doors

conversion of windows to doors and enlargement of original window openings
