Subject: Great News From VisionLink!

Hi Tony,

Here are some quick updates about the expanding world of VisionLink:

- 1) VisionLink was selected to support a multi-year project with United Way World Wide and the Centers on Disease Control and Prevention to provide the national public information surge capacity platform for national pandemics, in collaboration with 2-1-1s.
- 2) VisionLink is working with the National Academy Foundation to build better connections between young people and their careers for hundreds of academies across the country. National employer partners include: AT&T, Cisco, HP, Johnson & Johnson, JPMorgan Chase, Travelers, Xerox, and other leading employers.
- 3) VisionLink was asked by the American Red Cross to build the next generation of the National Shelter System on our new software platform.
- 4) We are excited to be working with Asylee Women Enterprise \(AWE\). Based in Baltimore, Maryland, Asylee Women Enterprise helps women seeking asylum to rebuild their lives and their spirits.
- 5) VisionLink now supports two integrated telephony solutions, InContact and Connect First. The United Way of Southern Kentucky will be deploying a state-of-the-art integrated solution from VisionLink and Connect First.
- 6) VisionLink was recently awarded a contract with the City of Houston to improve whole community response and coordination after a disaster, by enhancing Crisis Cleanup.
- 7) Sandboxes for our new software platform are being released to: 2-1-1 Pennsylvania, United Way of Abilene, United Way of Northern Nevada and the Sierra, United Way of Escambia County, and SC Access. This new platform redefines the paradigm of community information systems.
- 8) Avancera, a new 501(c)(3) charity has just launched with VisionLink support. Avancera's first project is the MedSurplus Alliance, a collaborative nonprofit network orchestrating medical surplus deliveries to 148 nations around the world.

Next month, stay tuned for more details about our new software platform and partnerships!

Sincerely,

Dr. W. Douglas Zimmerman
