Thanks. We talked about that yesterday, and I've asked for follow up information. What's next week look like for you?

DV, tried to send you response from my phone but not sending...need a raincheck but promise to sit with you asap.

In meantime, you should keep an eye on student account receiveables and ensure they are heading in the right direction...scsu at one time was floating students at an incredible sum.

Hi, I trust that you're counting the days, but I want to see if you'd still have some time next to talk to me about SCSU. I have a orientation retreat there on Monday and Tuesday, and I'd love to come by on Wed and get some of your insight on the situation. Is there a time on Wednesday that might work? Just let me know, and I'll bring coffee. Thanks a lot
