Subject: Have landfill leachate issues? Get answers @ WasteExpo's EREF Summit

It's all about landfill leachate at the NEW EREF Summit!

Get ready to..

- Learn how to manage and treat landfill leachate
- Network with landfill owners & operators, consultants, equipment providers, municipalities and government agencies

If leachate treatment is a challenge and large operating expense for your landfill, or you just want to learn how to better manage and treat landfill leachate, you do not want to miss the EREF Summit!

The industry's top technical experts and cutting-edge research institutions will be presenting on all facets related to landfill leachate.

You can expect to learn:

- The current state of practice regarding leachate management and how much leachate is managed across the U.S.
- Perspectives from some of the largest landfill owners regarding how they deal with leachate
- What on-site treatment processes are most common and challenges in using them

- Emerging contaminants in leachate and how they are being handled
- Challenges in accepting leachate at publicly owned treatment works (POTWs)
- Changes in leachate due to elevated temperature landfill conditions
